WHY

The Place to get your BEDS Cleansed
IS OVER KIRKPATRICK'S STORE, ON MAIN STREET,
WHERE they sift all the dirt and wash all the feathers, and return them with the ticks without waste, or burning them up; where they warrant to make the feathers as light and good as new. All you have to do is to test our work for yourselves, and be satisfied.
Remember the place, and do not get cheated with other cheap machines.
Beds taken from, and delivered with our team, without extra charge in the city.
Price per bed, bolster and pillows, $1.00.

MANUFACTURERS OF WARRANTED
Extra Cast Steel Patent Ground Circular Mill Mulay and Gang SAWS!

CIRCULAR SAWS,
WITH MOVABLE OR INSERTED TEETH.
We claim for our Patent Circular Saw the following advantages over all others:
The shank of the tooth are elastic, and exert a uniform distension in the sockets.
The stability of the plate is in no way affected by inserting new sets of teeth.
Each tooth, independently, may be adjusted to the cutting line.
No rivets, keys, or other objectionable appliances are employed in connection with the teeth, which are as simple in construction, and as easily used as a nut for a bolt.
In short, all the difficulties heretofore experienced in the use of movable teeth for saws, are fully met and obviated by this invention.

THE NOVELTY
IS THE ONLY WRINGER THAT HAS THE Patent Flange Cog-Wheels
ON BOTH ENDS OF THE ROLLS.
The cogs on one end of a roll are set relatively between those on the other end of the same roll, virtually forming a DOUBLE GEAR
and thereby nearly doubling the purchase. (The importance of having gears is that [illegible] is no generally understood.)
Notwithstanding the rolls can separate freely at either end, the Cog-wheels cannot be thrown out of gear on both ends of the Wringer at the same time, the [illegible] are sure to take hold.
The NOVELTY is fastened to a tub or box by a Patent Clamp, which has an equal bearing on a tub the whole length of the Wringer. Other Wringers are merely fastened to a stave at each end, or have the liability to wrench the staves from their proper position and ruin the tub.
The Cogwheels, Thumb-screws, &c., are nicely galvanized.
Buy the "NOVELTY," or at least take it on trial with any or all others, and keep the Best. Sold everywhere.

Penobscot Log Driving Co.

THE following is copy of Act additional to the charter of said Company, passed by the last Legislature, viz:
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, as follows:
Section 1. That on all logs exceeding forty feet in length driven by said company under their charter, such additional toll shall be assessed for driving, as in the opinion of the directors shall be reasonable, arising from the increased expense of driving the same.
Section 2. Said company may make contracts for driving the logs, upon driving logs outside of the limits of the company on the Penobscot waters, and for any sum under such driving, the same lien shall exist and be enforced in the same manner as is provided for other logs.
Section 3. Said company may build or assist in building and keep in repair, any steamboats or other craft, that in their opinion, or in the opinion of the directors, may be advantageous in facilitating the progress of the drive, the expense of which may be apportioned upon the logs of different years, as they may think proper.
Section 4. This act shall take effect when approved.
Approved February 11, 1869.

State of Maine.

To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot:
GEORGE W. PICKERING, of said Bangor, respectfully represents, that he is seized, in fee simple, in common and undivided, with Mrs. Sophia Barker, of said Bangor, and other persons to your petitioner unknown, of an undivided half part of a certain tract of land situate in Brewer, in said county, containing four acres and nine one hundredths of an acre, more or less, being the the most westerly lot of land laid down on plan of lots by Z. Bradley April 1, 1836, for John Barker and als., being the same premises described in deed from Thomas Drew to said Barker and Moody & Le Breton, dated April 21, 1849, and recorded in Penobscot Registry of Deeds, Book 76, page 429, subject to the right of way provided for in said deed, together with the right of way appurtenant to said premises granted to said parties by said Drew, and your petitioner is desirous of holding his said portion in severalty to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Wherefore, he prays that partition of said premises may be had, and his part set off as aforesaid to be held in severalty.
GEORGE W. PICKERING.
ALBERT W. PAINE, Att'y.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Sept. 15, 1869.
It is ordered that the petitioner give notice of the pendency of this petition, by giving to the within named Sophia Barker a true and attested copy of this petition and order, twenty days before the next term of the Supreme Judicial Court, for said county, and also, by publishing a copy of the same and this order in the Daily Whig and Courier three weeks successively, twenty days before the twelfth day of October next, that all persons interested may then and there appear in said Court and answer to said petition, if they see cause.

The Privateer Steamer Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4
Special to N. Y. Herald.

The Marshal at Wilmington telegraphed to the President that he seized the steamer Cuba yesterday, whereupon he held a consultation with Secretaries Fish and Robeson and Attorney General Hoar. It was shown that a privateer, which the Cuba is conceded to be, could come into the port of any nation under stress of weather, and remain twenty-four hours without molestation or detention. It is not thought that the Cuba could remain in an American port without laying the Government open to the charge of harboring a privateer, fitted out with the avowed purpose of preying on the commerce of a nation with which the United States are at peace.

A telegram was sent to the Marshal inquiring how long the Cuba had been in port and other facts connected with the case. Up to a late hour no reply had been received. It is thought here that the Cuba did not remain over the prescribed time, and has got to start to sea again. If it should turn out that the Cuba was ready to depart in 24 hours after she came into port, [illegible] was prevented by the U. S. Marshal, [illegible] she will be released—the fault not [illegible] her captain's but that of the United States Marshal.

The Cuban Fillibusters.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 1.

The privateer Hornet alias Cuba, appeared off Smithville Saturday evening, flying [illegible] colors. It has been definitely ascertained that she has 200 men and 30 officers on board, the majority of whom are [illegible] Confederates. She anchored inside the [illegible] and sent her Engineer and Purser to the city to secure a supply of coal, that [illegible] on board off New York not being [illegible] to quick movements. Suspicions [illegible] soon aroused, the officers, after [illegible] a supply of coal, returned to their [illegible] without making arrangements to [illegible] coal aboard. They left this city [illegible] about 12 o'clock for Smithville, [illegible] miles below, in a small row-boat. [illegible] Collector Rumley chartered the steamer Alpha this morning at 4 o'clock, and [illegible] placed in the hands of Deputy U. S. Marshal a warrant signed by the U. S. Commissioner, placed him on board with [illegible] of the custom force, with orders to [illegible] the privateer until further orders.—[illegible] Frank, commanding the U. S. troops [illegible] Smithville, is expected to co-operate [illegible] the Deputy Marshal, if necessary.

The Alpha has not yet returned. Further intelligence will be telegraphed immediately on her arrival. The officers who visited the city were very bold and confident, insisting that there is no process by [illegible] privateer can be legally detained.

LATER.

The Hornet was seized by the U. S. Deputy Marshal at Smithville, at noon to-day, [illegible] brought up and anchored half a mile [illegible] the city this evening.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 4.

The Morning News has reports from [illegible] of the arrival of the steamship Alpha at Fernandina on Friday night, from New York, with 400 men, including 60 officers, for the Cuban expedition now rendezvousing on the Gulf coast. The men were immediately put aboard the cars and sent to Cedar Keys, where steamers await them.

Two hundred men arrived at Baldwin, Fla., on Saturday night from Savannah.—They are supposed to be a portion of the command now organizing in Middle Georgia.

The Elections.

The elections to occur in October are those of Iowa, Indiana, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania, on the second Tuesday (the 12th) and West Virginia on Thursday the 28th.

In Iowa a State ticket is to be elected, and the chief interest is in the Legislature which is to elect a successor to Senator Grimes. There can be no doubt as to the result, particularly as the Republicans carried the State last year by a majority of over 47,000 and in the Legislature the Republicans had 107 majority. The interest in the Senatorial contest will therefore be mostly personal, and of no vital importance at a distance.

The election in Indiana is for minor officers, and there is no special interest attaching to it; and in West Virginia the restoration of the franchise to the ex-rebels seems to be the principal question in issue, and is likely to be carried.

A great deal of interest always centres in Pennsylvania. For a great many years the political contests in that State have been very close. In a vote of over six hundred thousand, the majorities have seldom reached twenty-five thousand on a strict party contest. Last year the Republican State ticket had but 10,000 majority. This year the Republicans have re-nominated the gallant General and able Governor Geary to head their ticket. The Democrats have nominated a rich coal monopolist and encrusted copperhead, Asa Packer. The Republicans have renewed their adhesion to the straight faith they have ever so vigorously promulgated, and propose no compromise. The Democrats, swallowing at a gulp all their own fair professions of love for the people, have placed in nomination a man who is not only a high protective tariff supporter, but a notorious bloated bond-holder. There could seem to be but little doubt of the contest. The Democracy have so repeatedly played these games of double dealing that it seems impossible to expect anything but continued rebuke. The Democracy in the eastern part of the State have been vigorously quarreling with each other, one wing aggravated by the corruption which prevails in the other. On the contrary, the Republicans are very harmonious and are now doing a good work. We still expect to hear of Gov. Geary's election by an increased majority.

Several circumstances contribute to make the Ohio election the most important of the fall campaign. The Democrats have found it necessary, in order to keep up interest enough to run the concern another year or two, to commence the Presidential campaign. New York having presented Gov. Hoffman, Ohio presented Mr. Pendleton. Prudential motives caused them to nominate for Governor Gen. Rosecrans, but his withdrawal gave them an opportunity to carry out their original desire to inaugurate the next national campaign. Mr. Pendleton was nominated as much for President as for Governor, and his friends with their usual assurance, profess to believe that they will succeed in both instances. To those who remember with what confidence his friends came on to New York last year, and took the city as they hoped to take the Tammany convention by storm with their martial music and noise, and with what ignominious failure they met at the hands of their friends, this assumption seems curious. It would seem impossible for him to hope for success in Ohio when even many of his own party are bitterly opposed to his peculiar policy, and more especially as the Democratic party is somewhat demoralized by the withdrawal of Gen. Rosecrans and a succession of defeats upon just such platforms as Pendleton has occupied all along. With all their professions, we do not believe that the leaders of the Democracy hope for success in the election of Governor, and they evidently intend to confine their endeavors to the Legislature with the hope of defeating the 15th Amendment and redistricting the State so as to obtain several more Congressmen. In Hamilton county, to which Cincinnati belongs, they have in connection with certain German managers, nominated a Legislative ticket of seven Democrats and seven Republicans. The bait, however, does not take, even among the German voters, and the prospect is that the regular Republican ticket will prevail, and thus decide the Legislature. Gov. Hayes is deservedly popular, and will once more drive rebellion and repudiation to the wall, while we believe the people will be too steadfast and faithful in the Legislature elections to surrender at this late day all they have gained.

The Democrats of Wisconsin are dissatisfied even because a man who merely served in a staff position in the Potomac Army without having damaged his rebel brethren to any visible extent, has been nominated for Governor. They have suspicions of a man who even smelt of gunpowder on the nation's side. One of the Democratic papers charges him with having "deserted his party when the minions of civil strife seized on the public mind." It considered his going down to the Army of the Potomac as "base ingratitude and perfidy;" and it swears that the Democrats of Wisconsin "have no sympathy with this nominee for Governor." Now, that's plain honest Democracy. Every man who went into the Union army necessarily deserted the Democratic party. For the same reason he is out of place in that party to-day. Fine words won't hide the fact that the Democratic party of the North and that of the South have for the past ten years been fighting the country each in its own most effectual manner.

Mr. Everett's New Book.

THE SCIENCE OF THOUGHT; a System of Logic. By Rev. Charles Carroll Everett. Boston: Wm. V. Spencer, 1869.

This work which has long been anxiously awaited by the many admirers of the author's genius, has been in the market but a few days, and its reception is very flattering. We do not propose to review the book, for in this vicinity, where every body will read it, a review would be useless. More than that, it is almost impossible to condense the idea of a work of one who reasons so closely and writes so tersely as Mr. Everett.

The character of the work may be judged by the opening sentences of the preface, which we quote: "It is the aim of this work to consider thought as a reality, to approach it as any work of true science approaches its material. It first discusses the relations that make up the substance of actual thought. It then analyzes thought into its element, and follows it into its fundamental divisions. It shows the methods of each of these, the kind of argument, and the degree of certainty of which it admits, its dangers and safeguards, and how all of these divisions are the parts of a common whole. And, finally, it considers thought in its completeness. It seeks to determine its limits [illegible] and to that end it considers some of the [illegible] problems with which thought has to contend, so far as the possibility of their solution depends upon or illustrates the nature and limits of thought itself. Such is at least the plan of the present work, and without regard to the success or failure of its execution, such I am confident, must be, in general, the plan of any true system of logic; or, if the true meaning and use of this term should be made a matter of dispute, such must be, in general, the plan and scope of any work that shall treat thought as an object of scientific study."

The work is divided into three books. First—Abstract Material and Relations of Thought, or Categories. Second—Forms of Thought as Embodied in Logical Forms. Third—The Problems and Limits of Thought.

We cannot better conclude this notice than by copying the beautiful "Dedication," as follows:

> A garland fresh with flowers of song
> Would be an offering more meet
> For thine acceptance than these sheaves
> Of ripened, dry, and heavy wheat,
> Which, bringing from the harvest field,
> I lay, beloved, at thy feet.
> I will not try with useless words
> To glorify this gift of mine.
> It were a hopeless task to prove
> The homely offering fit or fine.
> The truth is simply told: these sheaves
> Are all I have; I make them thine.
> But when I sought the harvest field,
> Thy careful love went forth with me,
> Supplied the strength I lacked, and wrought
> Through the long hours, ungrudgingly:
> Even this poor gift I cannot give;—
> I bring but what belongs to thee.

Winterport Railroad in Hampden.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

The people of Hampden on Saturday last held a town meeting, to see if the town would vote to take stock in the Winterport Railroad, under the general act of 1867, authorising towns, upon a two-thirds vote, to take stock to the amount of five per cent. of their valuation. The vote was 90 in favor of aiding the road, and 78 against it, the requisite two-thirds not having been voted in the affirmative. Of course the meeting was a failure.

There are in the town of Hampden 700 voters—174, less than one-fourth of the local voters, participated in the meeting, knowing that no discussion of the matter was had, nor was there any exertion put forth to get out a full vote of the town. The friends of the measure (for all are friendly to the road,) living at the village and immediately upon the line, where it is presumed the road will pass, generally voted in the affirmative, the people in the back part of the town voted against it. Some of these men may be called timid, cautious, stingy men, who had, "as lief a fox track would cross their farms as a railroad." Some of them believed that if they voted in favor of the stock a tax would be assessed upon them at once; some voted no because the road would be made without the aid of Hampden; some voted in the negative because a remnant of the war debt ($24,000) was still unpaid, not taking into consideration the fact, that the railroad itself would increase the valuation of the town at least one half, the very day the road is completed, making it $900,000 instead of $600,000, as it now is. It would bring capital into the town, manufacturing establishments would spring up, and its population, now 3,000, would double in five years. When the various lines of railroad pointing to Bangor (now being constructed) are completed, building lots on the line of this road in Hampden, will be worth as much as building lots on State street, ten minutes walk from Kenduskeag bridge; as Hampden by rail will be but five to ten minutes from Bangor. Men living in the back part of the town, often ask, "What benefit can a road be to them passing through the front part of the town to Winterport." The answer is, "It will relieve them of a portion of their tax." If the valuation is increased from $600,000 to $900,000, the man who pays $15 tax will have to pay but $10; and the man who would have to pay $24 of the present war debt of the town, would have to pay but $16.

It would also benefit the farmer living back many ways, by giving him a larger market for his surplus products, &c. Wherever in this country railroads are built, improvements of every kind and business springs up. I am fully satisfied, with the intercourse I have had with the people of Hampden, that, after the matter shall be more fully discussed, and rightly understood, and the right to loan their credit in the manner Bangor has done, shall be obtained from the Legislature, they will at their annual March meeting, vote in favor of aiding an enterprise so vital to the future growth and prosperity of their town.

Bangor has already loaned its credit to the amount of $2,200,000, and has never yet been called upon to assess a dollar upon its taxable polls or property, the earnings of the roads being ample to pay the interest upon their bonds as it became due, and is now paying $20,000 per annum upon the principal of the Maine Central Road.

A TAX PAYER OF HAMPDEN.

Mr. Chandler's Letter.

Editor of the Daily Whig:

It is with great surprise that I have read the communication in your paper of the 2d inst., commenting upon my letter to the committee of the recent Centennial Celebration at Bangor. On such occasions, when old friends meet to compare notes of personal history, and indulge in reminiscences of the past, the highest literary or oratorical excellence is not ordinarily expected. The most rigid austerity is apt to unbend and a wide latitude of remark and anecdote is considered allowable. Like S. Ivey Smith's philosopher, at such a time, among neighbors and friends and old schoolmates, one may almost venture to speak disrespectfully of the equator without receiving a very sharp reproof.

My letter was written under circumstances not favorable to a finished performance, even if I had desired to make it such; and it was perhaps of a character too trivial. But it never occurred to me that it contained anything which could be regarded as a reflection upon the character of a gentleman so well known as the late Wiggins Hill. If he had not possessed the qualities your correspondent names, there would have been more plausibility in the supposition that there was a desire to "hold him up to ridicule." But it is precisely because, as your correspondent asserts, "it is well known that he was not morose, or bitter, but liberal, tolerant, genial, liked to see others happy and enjoyed the sports of children," that one might make a playful allusion to our youthful sports, and to a difference of opinion between Mr Hill and the school-boys forty years ago as to coasting in the streets, without supposing it could be regarded as a serious or injurious imputation upon a respectable citizen. At the same time, on reading the letter in print, and comparing the strictures of your correspondent, I can well understand how a portion of it might be misunderstood and so wound the sensibilities of the friends of one not long since deceased. Sincerely desiring to contribute something to amuse the company on an occasion so interesting, I regret that my letter was annoying to a single person, and I should regret it still more, if I did not feel sure that matters of this sort are usually set right at once by the good sense of a just and intelligent community.

W. CHANDLER.

The Storm.

The storm of Sunday and Monday was very powerful in many parts of the country. In Washington it damaged property considerably as well as in the surrounding country. The rain was unprecedented for its violence. Bridges over the canal and elsewhere in the city were washed away. The lower part of the city was flooded and women and children were rescued with great difficulty. The storm in Georgetown was very severe and much damage was done. The bridges over Rock Creek were swept away. Bladensburg was inundated. In some parts of the village even the upper stories of the houses were flooded. The New York train was delayed several hours.

In Schenectady, N. Y., several dams in the suburbs are gone. Some of the main streets of the city are under water. The Mohawk river is ten feet above low water mark. The Erie Canal is in a very bad condition. The New York Central trains going west, were water-bound for several hours. Reports from all the interior of New York represent the storm as one of the severest ever known. Railroad communication is interrupted in all directions and the damage is very great. Bridges, culverts, &c., were carried away in all directions and several lives were lost. The Rensselaer and Saratoga Railroad was greatly damaged. In addition to the destruction of bridges the track was washed away in many places. In Albany much damage was done. The loss of the city in tearing up of pavements, bursting of sewers, &c., is at least $50,000. Several bad breaks have occurred in the Erie Canal. The Lehigh and Susquehanna and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad in Pennsylvania, suspended the running of the trains on account of the great damage to the track and embankments from the storm. There is a great freshet at Mauch Chunk.

The destruction of private property near Morristown, Pa., is immense. Three people were drowned there. Both the Morris town and Reading Railroads were submerged, but a large force is ready to repair as soon as the water subsides. The coal trade will not be idle over two days unless the mines are flooded. Trains to and from the South have been delayed.

OUR FINANCES—Estimated Surplus for the Current Fiscal Year. The following is the letter of the Hon. David A. Wells, U. S. Commissioner of Revenue, to Hon. Thos. H. Dudley, United States Consul at Liverpool, in regard to our present financial condition and prospects, to which reference was made in a cable dispatch from London, recently published in the newspapers:

Treasury Department,
Washington, Aug. 19, 1869.

Dear Sir: In answer to the inquiry in your note of the 6th, as to the probable surplus revenue of the United States, which can be made applicable during the current fiscal year for a further and continued reduction of the public debt, I will, in place of giving you a direct and specific opinion, ask your attention to the following figures: The accounts of the Treasury for the fiscal year which ended on the 30th of June last, have not yet been fully completed; but enough is at present known to make certain that the excess of receipts over expenditures was at least $40,000,000—i. e., receipts, $371,000,000; expenditures, $323,000,000.

As no radical change in the laws imposing taxation or in the business of the country can be immediately anticipated, we are warranted in believing, that the above surplus will at least be continued during the current year, and we therefore assume it as the basis of our estimate.

To this amount must be added two specific items of expenditure, provided for out of current receipts during the last fiscal year, which will not be carried over into the present year, and must, therefore, be reckoned as a net gain to the Treasury, viz: $18,000,000 required to complete the payments for extra bounties, and $7,200,000 gold (equivalent to $9,600,000 currency) disbursed in payment of the Alaska purchase.

The present annual elasticity of the revenue, or its increase from the increase of the country in wealth and population, will average at present $15,000,000, while the gain from the rigid system of economy inaugurated by the present administration and from a more faithful collection of its taxes will undoubtedly equal, and probably exceed $30,000,000.

The sum of the several items will be found to be, $120,000,000, which approximately indicate the amount of surplus revenue which is likely to be placed at the disposal of the Treasury during the current fiscal year, and made applicable for the further reduction of the national debt.

It only remains for me to call your attention to the fact that an annual investment of $100,000,000 at six per cent. in a sinking fund, will extinguish the entire principal of our debt in less than fifteen years; or if the contribution to the sinking fund be limited to $50,000,000 per annum at six per cent. (and a smaller contribution than this is not in accordance with popular sentiment,) the law will only be extended to twenty-three years; and between these periods you have, in my opinion, the exact time when the present public debt of the United States will be extinguished.

I am yours, most respectfully,
DAVID A. WELLS.

HAMPDEN, Oct. 4th, 1869.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The article in the town warrant upon which the voters of Hampden were last Saturday called to act, was as follows—

"To see if the town will vote to authorize the Selectmen, on behalf, and at the expense of the town, to subscribe for fifty shares in the Winterport Railroad;

Provided, Said road shall be located to pass within a half mile of the Penobscot River, at points opposite the villages of Hampden and Hampden Corner."

As you have already apprised your readers, the vote of the town upon this article was adverse, the requisite two-thirds not being obtained. It should be stated, however, on behalf of many who voted in the negative, that their objections extended no further than to the proviso; while they favored the enterprise and would cheerfully vote the aid of the town, they were opposed to the limitation imposed by the article as inserted in the warrant. Another town meeting has been called, to be held Saturday, Oct. 9th, when, it is hoped, this ground of objection being removed, old Hampden will respond favorably to the very modest call upon her resources, in aid of an enterprise which must prove of essential benefit to her.

Until the result of the vote of next Saturday shall be announced, we would ask you, as misunderstood and misrepresented characters are often forced to do, to suspend judgment. Yours, M.

VIRGINIA. Richmond despatches state that both the Wells and Walker members of the Legislature held caucuses Monday night. The Wells party resolved to enter a protest in the Legislative Journal against the admission of members who had not taken the iron-clad oath. The Walkerites discussed nominations for Legislative officers, but adjourned without acting upon candidate for U. S. Senator. Gen. Canby has refused certificates to 27 candidates, because ineligible, under the Fifteenth Amendment, [illegible] subsequently obtained certificates on swearing they were not disqualified.

Mosby was named Patriarch because he suggests nothing but a bore.—Boston Post.

Ay! That's the rub, Mr. Post. He bored so hard that he strikes oil in the Democratic party too often for its benefit.

The Toronto Globe thinks annexation to the United States would be the death-blow to Montreal's commercial supremacy, because Canadian business men would find it to their interest to go to Chicago or other cities in the United States.

Few are aware of the great extent to which straw is used for making paper. In one town alone in New York State, (Chatham,) 75000 tons of rye straw are yearly used to make paper of, and yield about 1,000,000 reams of various sizes.

There were received in Sacramento on the 10th inst., by railroad, 10,000 dozen eggs. They can be carried thither and sold for fifty cents per dozen, which is ten cents less than is charged for the California article.

The nomination of a regular candidate by the Texas Democrats portends defeat to Mr. Hamilton, whose chances are contingent upon a junction of Democrats with Republicans, against Davis, the more regular Republican candidate. There is now no excuse for Republican division either in Texas or Mississippi, and in both States we look for a solid Republican vote.

Political and Personal.

Several leading Democrats of New York have issued an address to their party, exposing the gross corruption of the Tammany ring and calling for resistance to its machinations.

The Ohio correspondent of the New York Times, in reviewing the campaign in that State, says, "the Republican strength is reasonably [illegible] were [illegible] by 15,000 majority."

Commissioner Delano, as the result of his observations in Pennsylvania during his recent tour, gives it as his opinion that Gov. Geary will be elected by nearly as large a majority as [illegible] before.

An Arkansas correspondent [illegible] the Democrats triumph in Ohio and Pennsylvania [illegible], an attempt will be made to reorganize the Democratic party in the State. [illegible] wise, Dom[illegible] is done for in Arkansas [illegible] throughout the State generally.

A Washington special says that President Grant, in a recent conversation, said he felt confident that the Republicans would carry Pennsylvania [illegible] coming election. The [illegible] calculating [illegible] politicians in the State have [illegible] that Gov. [illegible] will be elected by [illegible] to fifty thousand majority. The [illegible] of Philadelphia [illegible] down Republican [illegible] five thousand [illegible] is not [illegible].

It is reported [illegible] Tennessee [illegible] Stokes, Brownlow, Maynard, [illegible] Etheridge, freely [illegible] that the Senate will refuse to admit Andrew Johnson if he should be chosen [illegible] that body, on a specific construction [illegible] the clause of the Constitution which [illegible] that body to be the exclusive judge [illegible] qualifications of those elected to it. [illegible] disqualification is none other than "[illegible]," and the proofs will be found in the evidence brought out in the impeachment trial.

TOO MUCH LAW MAKING. In a speech at Worcester, Gen. Butler said:

"At the time I [illegible] considering the topics of my address, [illegible] put into my hands a book of over [illegible] printed pages, containing the laws passed by the Legislature of the Commonwealth in 1869. Two hundred octavo pages a year, said I, in a single year. Five thousand in 10 years, and 10,000 in 20 years [illegible] a single State. The world itself will not contain the laws that shall be passed [illegible] generations. In a note at the end [illegible] told that the General Court of 1869 [illegible] on Wednesday, the 6th day of January [illegible] was prorogued on Thursday, the [illegible] of June, the session having occupied [illegible] hundred and seventy days, that they passed 409 acts and 103 resolves, all of which received the approval of the Governor, [illegible] then, not without a touch of grave humor, we are informed that the acts may be [illegible] as follows: 'General statutes, or [illegible] public character, 393; special acts, relating to individuals or corporations, 173.' The [illegible] do not seem to have been classified at all, although they were, with perhaps [illegible] exceptions, in favor of individuals, [illegible] almost only the same exceptions [illegible] took money from the treasury of the [illegible]."

Consumption.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

DR. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC for the cure of Dyspepsia and all the Debilitated Conditions of the Stomach.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS for Diseases of the Liver, or to act as a gentle Purgative.

All of these three medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases. The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the Stomach and Liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search through the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These medicines are conscientiously offered to the public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedies for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, [illegible]

The following appointments were made today:—

Gustave D. Jaroski, of P[illegible], Consul at Augsburg; Francis Long[illegible], [illegible] of Columbia, Marshal of the [illegible] Court at Hankow, China; Clar[illegible] Marshal of Port Prayo, Santiago, Ca[illegible], Cape De Verde Island.

A paragraph was recently published that Consul General Plumb had informed this government that the Spanish [illegible] in Cuba would interfere with the U. S. mails. No such interference, however, has taken place, and therefore he [illegible] required any direct action [illegible] part. There is no doubt that persons at Havana are subject to search where there is reason to suspect they are in possession [illegible] inimical to Spain. From this [illegible] arisen the apprehension [illegible] by Mr. Plumb.

Loss of Property by the Flood

HUDSON, N. Y., [illegible]

The flood yesterday was [illegible] extended and disastrous in this vicinity than was at first supposed. The total [illegible] of property in the county is roughly [illegible] half a million dollars.

Union League

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.

A large Republican meeting was held this evening in front of the Union League House. Judge Strong presided and made a stirring speech. He announced that Secretary Boutwell had been recalled to Washington by his official duties, but expressed his willingness to address the people on Saturday evening, if a suitable room could be obtained.

Speeches were made by eminent speakers.

Virginia Legislature.

The Legislature convened at noon with a full attendance in the House. A temporary organization was effected, with Wm. M. Lingland of Rockbridge, as Speaker, and H. G. Jones of Albemarle as Clerk, and adjourned till to-morrow, when the permanent officers will be elected.

Mr. Bowdin, (Wells Republican) protested against any officer temporarily or permanently taking his seat who had not taken the iron clad oath.

The Senate elected all the officers nominated in the caucus last night.

A Wells Republican made the same protest as was made in the House against their entering office without taking the iron clad oath. The Senate then adjourned until to-morrow.

Connecticut Town Elections.

HARTFORD, Ct., Oct. 5.

All the towns in the State except Bridgeport, held elections for town officers on Monday. The returns have been received thus far from only 52 towns, communication with a large portion of the State having been cut off by the storm. Of the towns heard from, 28 elect Republicans and 18 Democrats and 6 are divided.

Ship Ashore

BABYLON, Long Island, Oct. 5.

The ship ashore near Gilgo Inlet is the Mary Elizabeth, of Pictou, from Buenos Ayres with hides, hair and wool. A person can walk round her at low water, and the ship and cargo are in good condition. A boat, in attempting to land from the coast wrecking company steamer this morning, was upset, and Robert Chittendon was lost. His body has not been recovered.

Freshet

AUGUSTA, Oct. 5.

The river still continues to rise and it has never been so high since 1832.

The Waterville toll-bridge has been carried away, and great damage has been done to the lumbering interest all along the lines of the river.

The long toll-bridge across the Kennebec at Waterville, was carried away by the freshet at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The loss near Waterville by the flood is estimated at $100,000.

Cattle Show and Fair

BIDDEFORD, Me., Oct. 5.

York County Cattle Show and Fair at Saco and Biddeford was held today. The show of stock is fine, and the display of fruits and vegetables never surpassed in New England.

The Fair continues Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, with trots each day.

From Portland

PORTLAND, Oct. 5.

Capt. John Waterhouse, master of the brig Morrison of Portland, was brought before Commissioner Clifford today, charged with throwing overboard and drowning John Fitzgerald, off Cape Elizabeth in April last, and bound over in $600.

The mate of the vessel was also bound over on the same charge.

The bodies of Mr. Thompson and Mr. Preble, drowned in the Peabody river, at the Glen House, has not been recovered.

Verdict

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.

In the libel case of Geo. Snyder against the Baltimore American, which has been on trial for some days in the Superior Court, the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $250 damages, and the defendants appealed.

Appraisal

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.

The Sheriff has appraised the Opera House attached at the suit of several parties against Fiske, at one million dolls.

Forfeiture

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 5.

The prize fight for light weights, between Sam Collier and Charley Dougherty, did not take place.

The parties met at Jamestown Island, but Dougherty being two pounds and a half over the weight, forfeited the money. About 300 spectators were present.

The Flood in New York—Damage to Railroads Repaired.

ALBANY, Oct. 5.

The Central Railroad is all right this forenoon. A train arrived at 6 o'clock—almost on time. There is no water on the track anywhere, and what damage has been done has been repaired.

No trains are going out on the Hudson River or Harlem Roads.

The water in this city is still over the docks and in the streets parallel with the river. South Broadway is navigable for small boats. Nearly all the basements and cellars east of Green street is flooded.

CABLE NEWS

Madrid, Oct. 5—The Cortes is discussing the bill suspending constitutional guarantees during the insurrection.

A republican band has been beaten in Mercia. The troops have retaken the town of Rus, which had declared for the Republicans and the authority of the government is now completely restored at that point.

Breaking of a Dam

SARATOGA, Oct. 5.

There is a canal break at Wilbur's Basin on the Champlain canal. A mill dam gave way and carried off Dr. Smith's grist, saw and plaster mills, about 70 feet of the canal bank, with ten feet of the canal bed. It will take about ten days to repair the breaks.

Monetary Affairs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5

The annual meeting of the Clearing House was held to-day. The total transactions for the year were $33,627,847,204.42, and the transactions since its organization, a period of 16 years, $256,027,658,962.70. The average transactions per day have been $125,098,789.97, being $27,010,917.65 more than any previous year. The total exchanges were $3,630,382,072.42, greater than ever before.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

—The Digdeguash saw mill at Digdeguash, New Brunswick, owned by Hon. F. A. Pike of Calais, was entirely destroyed by fire, together with contents on Saturday night last. Insured with Messrs. Fuller Brothers of Bangor, for $4,000. The mill had just been completed at a cost of about $20,000.

—The house of John McSorley in Oldtown was partially burned a few days since. The house of D. W. Longfellow of Passadumkeag was also slightly damaged by fire.

—Rev. S. D. Cuneo, of Brunswick, has received a call from the Free Will Baptist Church in this city, to become their pastor.

—The steamers Katahdin and Nautilus collided at Winterport Monday, slightly damaging the Nautilus.

—Notwithstanding the storm of Monday and Monday night the steamer Cambridge made her regular trip, arriving in this city yesterday at noon. She passed the City of Richmond anchored off White Head yesterday morning. The Katahdin started out from Rockland, and it is presumed made her regular trip to Boston.

DEATH OF CHARLES C. CHAMBERLAIN. Jefferson Chamberlain, Esq., received several days ago a letter from Capt. A. C. Eaton, of the bark, "Monitor," dated Sept. 23d, containing the sad intelligence of the death of his son Charles C. Chamberlain, the mate of the bark, who died on board of congestion of lungs, on the 28th of August, while twelve days out from Mexico, on the passage to Germany. His age was 29 years.—Jeffersonian.

—The Lewiston Journal says a company of Aroostook emigrants passed through that city Saturday—wives, and lots of babies perched comfortably on the top of the household goods, browning and thriving in October sunshine. When our railroads begin to creep into Aroostook you will see many companies headed that way.

—The Bath Times says that when completed the new Methodist church in Bath will compare in size and architectural beauty with any church in the State.

THE FRESHET. The rain of the day before yesterday caused a great rise upon the small streams and rivers. A gentleman who came from Milo yesterday, says, that the Piscataquis river at that point was higher than it had been for twelve years, and that much damage must occur to the crops upon the low lands bordering the river. Our informant states that he saw stacks of beans, pumpkins and other farm products floating by mingled with large quantities of logs and other lumber.

The road between Abbott and Guilford was completely submerged and impassible for a considerable portion of the distance.

The Kennebec river was higher than it has been for forty years. The toll bridge at Waterville was carried away about ten o'clock on Monday. The break commenced on the west side and in a few minutes the whole structure was carried away. The bridge was owned in stock, by the citizens of Waterville and vicinity. Our friend Gray, the gentlemanly conductor on the Maine Central, and his brother, were losers to the amount of $1000. A substantial free bridge will undoubtedly be erected in its place.

At Kendall's Mills a large number of houses are partially under water, and all the logs accumulated for sawing were swept away, as well as all the logs in the booms between Skowhegan and Waterville. The loss will exceed $100,000, and a large number of men are thrown out of employment.

In consequence of a break in the culvert a short distance from Skowhegan the morning trains could not pass, and the afternoon train from the West was detained at Seven Mile Brook on account of a break in the track at that place. The destruction of property is undoubtedly greater in this State than by any freshet that has occurred in many years.

The damage to the railroads in the State is considerable. The Lewiston Journal says the M. C. to Danville Junction is intact, as well as the G. T. track to Portland but the damage along the line of the latter road between the Junction and Island Pond is great. The bridge near Paris is impassable, the track at either end being washed away and the abutments being somewhat damaged. Monday night a culvert was washed out and three cars smashed badly about one mile and a half below Bethel.—No one hurt seriously, but several slightly bruised. Several culverts are damaged near Gorham, where the rain was tremendous.—All along the line the track is badly washed. No trains have passed up the line beyond Danville Junction, and it will be some days before the damages are repaired. The morning train from Portland, at last accounts, was awaiting further orders from Danville Junction, while there was no train from up the road. Boston bound travelers were forced to wait at the Junction for the noon train.

The damage to the Androscoggin Railroad, is considerable. The bridge near Farmington as we learn by telegraph, is carried away.

A train passed up the Androscoggin R. R. from Lewiston to Leeds Monday morning, where its progress was stayed, a bridge over the Dead River, in Leeds, having been carried off by the flood. A town bridge in Leeds over the same stream was also carried away.

A gentleman who passed through Wilton Monday afternoon, reports that he saw a farmer with a cart half full of potatoes in a potatoe field. The water was up to the cart hubs, and the farmer had decided that it was too wet for "chenangoes" and was leaving the rest to their fate.

Our special dispatch from Farmington, Tuesday morning, reports the loss—beside the R. R. bridge—of the town bridge over the Sandy River and a Corn Factory, both of which were carried off by the flood. The loss is heavy. The highways are badly damaged all over that part of the State.

The storm was so severe beyond Boston that no New York mails had arrived there yesterday morning.

—At a meeting of the members of the First Universalist Society, the following preamble and resolutions were passed unanimously—

Whereas, The Rev. C. C. Everett, Pastor of the Independent Congregational Church, is about to remove from Bangor.

Therefore, resolved That we, the members of the First Universalist Society of this city, who have so often enjoyed his preaching and received both in word and act his sympathy and kindness, recognize in him the ripe scholar, the faithful teacher and devoted Christian.

Resolved, That by his kindness of heart, his purity of life, and his exalted gifts as a preacher, he has greatly endeared himself to the members of this Society; and while we express our sincere regret that duty calls him to another field of labor, we pray that in his new work and in all the relations of life, he and his household may be abundantly blessed.

WM. C. HOLT,
Clerk.

—At the closing session of the Newport Teachers' Institute the following resolutions were passed by a large audience:

Resolved, That we will lay the axe of reform at the root of the tree of past evils, and labor with renewed zeal in the great cause of education—pressing forward until the State of Maine shall rise as high on the standard as any of her sister States.

Resolved, That "Teachers' Institutes" are the chief instruments to accomplish this object, and that we will use our utmost endeavors to sustain them, as we no longer regard them an experiment.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to P[illegible] Allen of Pennsylvania, and Prof. [illegible] of Lewiston, and our worthy Co. Supervisor, S. A. Plummer of Dexter, who have contributed so much to the interest and profit of the Institute by their unwearied exertions, judicious instruction, and interesting addresses.

The following resolution was passed by the members of the Institute:

Resolved, That we tender our most hearty thanks to the citizens of Newport and vicinity, for their constant and increasing patronage of the public meetings of the Institute.

—The Portland Press understands that in [illegible] some bodies from the Eastern Cemetery last week to the Evergreen Cemetery, one [illegible] was found so heavy that suspicion was entertained that it contained something beside a corpse. On opening it the body, which had been buried many years, was found to be completely petrified, and presented the appearance of a perfect cast in marble.

—The Machias Republican learns that the new hotel in [illegible] has been leased to some one from the West, who proposes to furnish just as much of it as shall be found necessary. Probably about half of it this winter.

—The Lewiston Journal says that Mr. N. G. Sturgis of Auburn, who raises some excellent fruit, had 101 finely growing fruit trees, consisting nearly or wholly of apple and pear, destroyed by the ravages of the mice last spring. He inclines to the opinion that a few good mousers would have saved him his trees. Some of these trees were in bearing.

—A new Congregational Church was formed Thursday at Cumberland Mills, Westbrook. The whole number of members is 29. The Sabbath School numbers 130, and $100 a month is subscribed for current expenses.

—A special dispatch to the Lewiston Journal states that J. M. Thompson, proprietor of the Glen House, White Mountains was drowned on Monday. He was in his mill which was carried away by the flood.

—The rise in the Androscoggin river at Lewiston has been unprecedented and rapid. Several millions of logs have gone over the falls, belonging largely to S. R. Bearce & Co., and to the Lewiston Steam Mill Company. There is no damage to the cotton mills in the city, which are beyond the reach of any contingency. Messrs. Cowan & Co.'s woolen mills had a dye house carried off on the lower level. Loss $1000.—The river is full of floating pumpkins and corn stalks, indicating much damage to farms along the river. Crowds of people were yesterday gathered on the river banks viewing the exciting scenes at the falls.

—Schooner Juniata, from Gardiner for New York, went on Watch Hill reef on the morning of the 1st inst. and bilged. Her deck load with spars and rigging will be saved.

—The New York mining company are at work in Eastport transforming the old salt works into a smelting furnace for iron.—They are intending to do a large business.

—The Bath Times says that one day last week the captain of a schooner lying at Winnegance, had his pants' pocket robbed of a portmonnaie containing $27. The pants were in a berth at the time. The thief has proved to be one of his crew, named Levi Williams, a young chap about twenty years of age, belonging in Bowdoinham. Williams has been arrested.

—The Aroostook Pioneer says there is a marked improvement in the morals of the French people of Madawaska, owing to the bold stand taken by the clergymen of that district, but more especially to the efforts of Father Bodet, a young Catholic priest from Canada, who is stationed at Van Buren.

—The Passamaquoddy Indians have elected Lewey Bennett to represent them in the next Legislature.

—The Houlton Times says that the skeleton of a man, supposed to be named Thomas Holland, who was suspected to have been murdered about two years ago, has recently been found near Murquant, N. B. Several arrests have been made of parties supposed to be concerned in the murder and among them Leonard Gilman and Henry Cox of Houlton.

—The Gazette says that Rev. Castello Weston of Bridgton, has received and accepted an invitation from the Trustees of the Universalist Society in Rockland to become the pastor of the Society, at a salary of $1,200, commencing on the first of October.

—The Rockland Gazette says that Freeman Johnston of Blackinton Corner was run over by a loaded lime rock wagon, last week, and his leg badly crushed.

—The Argus says that the trial of Mary Ellen Hartford, alias Mary Berry, the girl who stabbed Dunslor of Portland, on the covered bridge between Biddeford and Saco, on Wednesday night last, was completed Saturday morning. The girl was ordered to find sureties in the sum of $1000 to appear at the January term of the Supreme Court of York County. Not being able to furnish the same, she awaits in safe quarters the finding of an indictment against her by the Grand Jury. Dunslor, who was stabbed six times, is likely to recover.

A WORD ABOUT POTATOES. A correspondent of the Lewiston Journal writes: As there has been great excitement for a few years past about potatoes, I have taken some pains to procure the seed of different kinds. I find the Early Blues the best early potato for the table. The Orono is the best flour potato. The Early Goodrich and Harrison are humbugs of the biggest kind.

AROOSTOOK YIELD OF POTATOES. We find this in the Presque Isle Sunrise: "Mr. Nathan Perry of this village received, last spring, two potatoes from Col. Dunning of Bangor, which weighed half a pound each. He cut them into small pieces and planted them in two rows of about fifteen feet in length. Two days ago he dug them and the product of the two potatoes was two full bushels of potatoes. We think this is the largest yield of potatoes we ever heard of.

"There was no extra tillage or care, the plants were left to take care of themselves and the weeds had pretty much their own way with them. We hope to see them at the Fair."

A DISHONEST DOMESTIC. A servant girl in the family of Gen. Berry of Georgetown, has been arrested, and pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny of six hundred dollars in money, a large amount in notes of hand, a valuable gold watch and 18 silver spoons which she had stolen from her employer. She has made restitution of all the money but about forty dollars, which she has spent, and promised to show where she has concealed the watch and spoons. The notes of hand she had burned.

VERY LITTLE FROST YET. Sept 3d, and not frost enough yet, for those who lie in bed late to know that there is any. The trees are putting on their fall suits in consequence of the maturity of the leaves and not from the effect of cold. The autumnal beauty of our Aroostook forests will soon be in its glory, and such glory and beauty were never seen outside of Upper Aroostook! [Sunrise.

FIRE IN WASHBURN. The Presque Isle Sunrise says that on Tuesday last at 5 in the afternoon, the dwelling house of Rev. Mr. Lenfest of Washburn, was burned with all its contents. The fire is supposed to have originated from some defect in the stove. Loss about $500.

Hon. Neal Dow of Portland, author of the Maine Liquor Law, is now speaking for the State Alliance in Massachusetts, on Temperance. The public should know that Gen. Dow makes no charge for his service, and that this has always been his course. He spent a whole year in England in hard labor for the cause, without receiving a penny by way of compensation. We understand that General Dow is a gentleman of wealth, so that he is able to gratify his love for the cause in this way. Such devotion to principle deserves a public recognition by all journals that have the good of society at heart. Mr. Dow is an able and effective speaker. He is perfectly at home in handling the subject of prohibitory legislation. His arguments are irresistible, and the objections of opponents are disposed of so effectually that nothing remains to be said. He makes no flourish—uses no redundant sentences, and presses forward to his mark. He is eminently practical. His illustrations are drawn from familiar things, and have all the more power for that. In short his speeches are models of direct, argumentative, practical discourse. [Boston Journal.

CONSIDERABLE GOLD. A New York mathematician has figured up the extent of the business which was done in gold in that city on Friday, the 24th ult. The sales amounted to $500,000,000; and allowing $16 to an ounce, and sixteen ounces to the pound, and two thousand pounds to the ton, and one ton to each cart, it would require a thousand carts to move it, and allowing twenty feet to each horse and cart, the string of carts would be about eighty miles long.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

It will do it. What? Cure that hacking cough or whooping cough or sore throat and hoarseness. Warren's Balsam does it.

VALUABLE
AND MILL PROPERTY
FOR SALE.
THE subscriber, desirous of disposing of all his interest in Timber Lands and mills, will sell on favorable terms the following:
One-Half Township, No. 5, Range 4, Oxford County.
The whole township contains twenty-six thousand (26,000) acres, heavily timbered with spruce, estimated at sixty to eighty millions, all of which stands within near and easy hauling distance of the Magalloway river or its branches, which runs through the town, or Parmachenee Lake, which is embraced within its limits.
Also 16,000 Acres of Land in the Town of Byron Oxford Co., well covered with large Spruce timber. Swift river and its branches run through these lands and empty into the Androscoggin below Rumford Falls.
Also 1100 Acres Timber and Wood Land in Town of Gorham, N. H., two miles above the Alpine House, on the line of the Grand Trunk Railroad, and the banks of the Androscoggin river. There is a large quantity of wood on these lots which, from its proximity to the Railroad, is steadily increasing in value.
Also 2500 Acres Lands in the Towns of Albany and Stoneham, near the village of North Waterford, Oxford County. This land is covered with thrifty sapling Pine timber, standing near Crooked river, which runs through the tract. Logs put into Crooked river can be run to Saccarappa, or by hauling four to five miles, they can be put into the Saco. There is a good mill privilege, with a single saw mill on the tract; distance to the canal at Harrison ten miles; to the railroad at South Paris twelve miles. The land is valuable for settling purposes after being cleared of timber.
Also 435 Shares of Stock in the Lewiston Steam Mill Company, the whole capital stock being represented by 827 shares. The property of the company consists of a Steam Saw Mill capable of manufacturing five million feet of long lumber, with a proportionate amount of clapboards, shingles and laths. About fifteen acres land in the city of Lewiston, well located for building purposes, and thirty thousand acres of timber land, well located on the Androscoggin river and its branches, from which but a small quantity of the timber has been cut.

Agricultural.

WOOD ASHES. According to Johnston's 'Agricultural Chemistry,' wood ashes consist of silicia, alumina, oxide of iron, oxide magnese, lime, magnesia, potash, soda, sulphuric acid, phosphoric acid, chlorine, and carbonic acid.

These constituents are essential to the growth of vegetation, and if they do not abound in the soil they must be supplied by artificial means. The potash, and other ingredients contained in wood ashes, are in a progressed state, having already been in organic life, and therefore not only a direct food for plants to the extent that they may require these constituents, but potash has a powerful chemical action on the soil, decomposing all organic substances, and rendering many inorganic substances soluble. Even the silicates, the chief component of sand, are so changed in condition that they are ready to give strength to the outer coating of straw, corn-stalks and the like.

Wood ashes are exceedingly valuable for sandy soils, and are beneficial on all soils; are especially valuable in their application to potatoes, carrots, corn, peas, beans, clover and the grasses generally.

As a top-dressing to grass lands it roots out the moss and promotes the growth of white clover. Upon red clover it is better to be mixed with one-fourth of its weight of gypsum.

Many persons in the country, who cultivate more or less land, have been in the habit of selling ashes at a very small price. Farmers and gardeners had better collect all the ashes they can, until they cost them over fifty cents a bushel.

HOG PENS. Every farmer knows how offensive a common sized hog-pen or yard becomes during the hot weather of summer, and how during a rainy time it becomes in fact a swamp of mud. To remedy this, those who have abundance fill it up with straw or other litter, ashes, &c. and yet the remedy is only partial; the smell is not disposed of, and the animals are full half the time wading in mire.

The following manner of building a pen we have known to remedy the evil completely: Take two pieces of six by eight timber each fourteen feet long; dress one end of each in form of a sled runner, then lay them parallel eight feet apart, with the six inch edge on the ground; now take four by four scantling and halve or tenant in crosswise one piece at each end, and one foot from the ends of the runners, leaving the four-inch strips one and one-half inches below the level line of the upper side of the runners; next lay a floor of one and one half inch plank over one-half of the surface, say eight by six feet. Next mortice in four by four scantling at each corner and midways for posts on which to nail boards for the enclosing. Let these four by four posts be flush with the outside line of the runners; then nail inch boards on the inside, dividing the whole with a cross fence or partition on a line of the floor. Roof over the floored part, form the trough across one end or side of the floored part, and with a slide door shut your hogs in or out of that part—and your pen is completed.

Now you ask where is the benefit of this pen over any common one, with posts set in the ground? We answer, you can hitch a team to it and remove it to any part of your grounds, placing it from time to time where most convenient to feed, etc., besides enriching various spots of ground and leaving the animals a dry place and fresh ground to work in.

[Ohio Farmer.

HOW TO SAVE GIRDLED FRUIT TREES. A correspondent of the Nashua Telegraph says Mr. Lemuel Towe of that place practices successfully a method of his own invention for saving girdled trees. His method, which was first applied to a fruit tree in his own garden in Milford, is to graft five or six scions as large round as a goose quill and long enough to reach over the girdled place, into the tree. The live bark is first notched above and below the girdle, the sprouts sprung into place and the ends fastened with wax. These scions grow rapidly and ultimately spread over the whole girdled service. Two thrifty apple trees standing upon the premises of Mr. Samuel B. Weston, on Temple street in Nashua, were completely girdled by mice eighteen years ago, one of them having the bark taken off over a foot in width on one side, and were saved in the above manner by Mr. Tawne, and they are still in good bearing condition.

American & Foreign Patents
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State Street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.
JOHN TAGGART."

A PACIFIC RAILWAY
GOLD LOAN
$6,500,000.

We beg leave to announce that we have accepted the agency of the Kansas Pacific Railway Company,

For the sale of the

New Seven Per Cent.
Thirty Year Gold Loan, Free from Tax.

This Loan amounts to $6,500,000.

First Mortgage Land-Grant & Sinking Fund Bonds secured upon the extension of the Railway from near Sheridan, in Kansas, to Denver, Colorado, a distance of 237 miles, of which 12 miles are completed, and the rest is under construction. It is also a Mortgage upon the Road, the Rolling Stock and Franchise of this first-class Railway, besides now running through the State of Kansas,

And in Successful Operation for 437 Mile.

West of the Missouri River, and earning already enough to meet all of its expenses and existing obligations, besides

More than the Interest upon this New Loan.

In addition to this the Bonds are also secured by a first mortgage of the

GOVERNMENT LAND GRANT OF THREE MILLION ACRES,

extending in alternate sections on either side of the track, from the 394th mile post in Kansas to Denver. The proceeds of the sale of these lands are to be invested by the Trustees in the 7 per cent. Bonds themselves up to 120 or in U. S. Bonds, as A Sinking Fund for the Redemption of the Bonds.

The lands embrace some of the finest portions of the magnificent territory of Colorado, including a coal field and pinery. The Company also holds an asset another tract of

Three Millions of Acres in the State of Kansas, and although not pledged as a security for this Loan, their possession adds largely to the Company's wealth and credit. We estimate the Value of the Company's Property covered by this Mortgage, at $23,000,000 not, while the Loan is merely $6,500,000,

The Bonds have

THIRTY YEARS TO RUN,

From May 1, 1869, and will pay

Seven per cent. Interest in Gold, semi-annually, on May 1 and Nov. 1, and are

Free from Government Taxation,

The Company paying the tax.

The principal of the Loan is made PAYABLE in Gold, in the City of New York, but each coupon will be at option of the holder, without notice, at the following rates:

Payable in Frankfort, London or New York

On $1,000 Bond in New York, $35 (gold) each half year.

On $1,000 Bond in London, £7 6s. 10d. each half year.

On $1,000 Bond in Frankfort, 87 fl. 30 krtzs. each half year.

The Agents of the Loan, before accepting the trust had the condition of the Road, and the country through which it runs, carefully examined.—They are happy to give the Loan an emphatic endorsement as a

FIRST CLASS INVESTMENT,

In every respect perfectly sure, and in some essential[illegible] even Better than Government Securities.

The Bonds will be sold for the present at 96, and accrued interest, both in Currency,

The Agent reserving the right to advance the rate

The attention of Investors is invited to these well secured bonds, which we recommend as one of the most profitable investments in the market. Gold and Government Securities taken in payment at their market value, without commissions. Pamphlets, with maps giving full information, sent on application.

ELLIS' IRON BITTERS.

Having used your Iron Bitters in my practice, I can testify to its superior tonic properties for invigorating the appetite and promoting digestion. I can unhesitatingly recommend it in cases of general debility and dyspepsia, and in conditions of the system requiring the use of a ferruginous tonic. Its agreeable flavor must recommend it to all.

Yours, Respectfully,

Also, the same will be paid to the next of kin of every soldier who died while a prisoner, or who died after his release, for all the time he was a prisoner, to be paid in the following order:

First, To the soldier's widow, if any;
Second, To his children, if none—
Third, To his parents, if none—
Fourth, Brothers and sisters.

Blanks of all kinds and full directions have been furnished me from Washington, and I [illegible] collect these claims on very reasonable [illegible] Full information given at my office [illegible] all free of charge.

Blanks to be signed can be sent by [illegible] ication.

These cases are settled without [illegible] tions's claims usually.

C. P. BROWN,
Att'y and Claim Agent.

N. B.—Pensions, Bounty, Pay, [illegible] War Claims collected as heretofore.
